“Trends” Workshop Headline February Schedule on the 12th

Change may be the only thing that remains constant. With change comes adjustment and with adjustment new strategies emerge. While our message remains the same, the means to communicate that message must be evaluated by trends seen in our culture.

What trends do we see in evangelism, discipleship and worship? What is effective and what needs to be re-evaluated? Three outstanding leaders have been enlisted to lead this workshop. Each will make a twenty-minute overview followed by a panel discussion where you can ask questions or seek clarity.

Bill Mackey, Executive Director of the Kentucky Baptist Convention and former Director of Evangelism in South Carolina will share about trends in evangelism.

Steve McNeil, Director of Educational Ministries for our Indiana Convention and former Minister of Education at Northside Baptist in Indiana will share about trends in discipleship.

Steve Florence, Minister of Worship at First Baptist , Mt. Washington, Kentucky will share about trends in worship.

Monday February 12th is the date and it begins at 7:00 p.m. at our Ministry Center in New Albany.

Several Churches Call New Pastors

Seven of our Churches have called new pastors in recent months. Utica Baptist called Rev. David Kerr in November. Highland Baptist in Georgetown called Rev. Tony Nokes in November. Parkway Southern in New Albany call Rev. Henry Ford in November. First Southern of Floyds Knobs called Rev. Sam Rainer in January. Georgetown Southern called Rev. Wayne Martin in January. New Hope in West Liberty called Rev. George Oney in early Fall. Pleasant Ridge of Leavenworth called Rev. Patrick Hamilton in October. We welcome these new pastors to our family of churches.

Fiftieth Anniversary Coming in 2008

We will celebrate our fiftieth anniversary at the Annual Meeting in September 2008. It's not too early to plan. Opal Bowles chairs the committee planning this event and they are gathering ideas as to how best celebrate this occasion.

Histories of our churches will be updated and historical display will be featured. Think about ways your congregation can take part and what would you include in a display of your history.
